

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

We publish our formulae. We banish ailments from our medicine. We urge you to consult your doctor.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

Made by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE HERALD.

Frank Elam sold a nice milch cow to Ed Cecil for $80.

Mrs. Doc Kash was very sick with la grippe first of the week.

Ellis Johnson bought two hogs from Widow Brooks the other day, paying seven cents a pound.

Harlan South, of Frozen creek, is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mattie Perkins, on Lacy creek.

William Blankschup and wife, of Consolation, are confined to their room with severe cases of la grippe.

Granny Combs, of Consolation, is very low with la grippe. So low, in fact, that she is not expected to live.

Ote Young, of Grassy, is very sick and said to have pneumonia. A doctor was called to see him the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Lacy creek, is at the home of her son-in-law, Porter Lacy, in town, for medical treatment.

Mrs. Ellen Pieratt left this morning for an indefinite visit with her son, Henry Pieratt, and family, at Richmond.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Roscoe Shackelford returned on Monday from Cincinnati, where he had been to buy a planing outfit. We did not learn where he expects to set it up.

Several bunches of cattle passed through town en route to the market Monday and Tuesday. Jerry Holbrooks, of Letcher county, passed through Tuesday with a bunch of 87.

Rev. W. B. Ragan, pastor of the Methodist church at this place, will fill his regular appointment by preaching Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. Everybody come out and hear him.

The 13-year-old son of Bill Cox, of Toliver, was accidentally shot in the leg just above the knee with a 22 Stevens pistol. Dr. Taylor Center was called to dress the wound, but he did not extract the bullet.

A neighboring editor worked a scheme on his delinquent subscribers the other day. "All my subscribers but one have paid up in advance," he wrote, and about a hundred, ashamed to be the only one, dropped in and settled up.

H. H. Swango received a telegram Saturday last stating that R. F. Cecil, his father-in-law, at Cedar Bluff, Va., is very low, and not expected to live. Mrs. Boone May, another daughter of Mr. Cecil, started Monday morning to attend his bedside.

John M. Rose will offer for sale eight or ten of the most desirable building lots in Hazel Green on Saturday, March 5. At the same time he will also sell a lot of shoes, hats, etc. For further particulars see bills printed at this office and posted throughout this section. Jolly John Pieratt will act as auctioneer.

Boiler Explosion.

Last Friday morning while a crowd of men were standing around waiting for their turns at the saw and grist mill of James Haulsey, near Hardiman, in the Calaboose district, the boiler let go with terrific force, instantly killing Elementary Campbell and Henry Perry, a son of Thomas Perry. Campbell's body was terribly mutilated, being thrown about fifty yards and nearly all the clothing stripped off. The boy's clothing was also partially stripped off and the body badly torn, the left leg being found some thirty feet distant. A number of the bystanders were seriously injured, among them being James Haulsey, George Spencer, Thomas Perry, Logan Pelfry, Cal Wadkins and Thomas Perry, Jr., son of George Perry. Medical aid was immediately summoned and everything done to relieve the injured, some of whom are not expected to recover. It is not positively known what caused the explosion, but it is said that the water in the boiler was low and cold water was suddenly pumped into it. A horse hitched about fifty feet from the mill was struck by a piece of the shattered boiler and instantly killed.

Death of Aunt Eliza Nickell.

Last Friday night, 11th inst., Mrs. Eliza Nickell, widow of Geo. W. Nickell, deceased, and niece of A. P. Lacy, died at the residence of Mr. Lacy, on Lacy creek, after a prolonged illness. Mrs. Nickell had been married twice, her first husband being Jesse Combs, of Hazard, after whose death she married George W. Nickell, with whom she moved to Missouri some fifteen years ago. Mr. Nickell died and she returned to Kentucky, since which time she has been making her home with Mr. Lacy. "Aunt Liza," as every person called her, was recognized as a christian, noble woman, and loved by all. She left no children, but a host of friends, and her life of 70 years was pure and lovable. Tender friends laid her to rest Sunday in the Mark Lacy burial grounds, near where she was born.

A Family Quarrel.

As the result of a quarrel between Emery Risner and his wife, tenants on the farm of Andy Toliver, near Mize, Risner had his arm severely cut with a razor in the hands of his wife. He was at once taken to the home of his father-in-law, Dave Jackson, where surgical aid was rendered by Dr. Taylor Center, who pronounces the wound a serious one. Mrs. Risner declares the cutting was accidental.

The drinking of an abundance of water will prevent appendicitis, because appendicitis is the result of constipation and constipation is the result of insufficient bile and insufficient supply of liquids. That's what an exchange says, anyway. If anybody wants any further reasons they'll have to go elsewhere, for we're not here to run the doctors out of business.

An exchange tells of two little boys who asked their mother if they might play store in the dining room. "Yes," she replied, "if you don't make much noise." "We'll be quiet about it, mom," said one. "We'll be storekeepers that don't advertise."

The following were guests at the Day House since our last report: J. H. Fowler, Salt Lick; Noah Croach, Salt Lick; Ed J. Doyle, Portsmouth, Ohio; W. W. and E. F. Cartmell, West Liberty; W. P. Sandlin, Richmond, and a Mr. O'Rear, Clay City.

Sewell Rose, of Stillwater, was in town yesterday consulting with a physician.

H. G. A. Notes.

Several took membership in the Christian church Sunday.

Misses Meade and McCallam spent a pleasant afternoon with Misses Maple and Troy Sunday.

Arthur Kash and Troy Wilson left for Campton Saturday. We presume they wanted to see J. W. Tanlbee.

The U. D. girls gave their society program in the chapel Saturday night. Longfellow was highly represented.

Howard Halsey left today for the Hurst schoolhouse, where he will take a part in an entertainment in his brother's school.

Prof. Roberts has been on the sick list for the past week. We miss him very much and hope to see him back at his work soon.

Courtney Dennis, the boy who left school at the beginning of the term to take measles, has recovered and is now back in school.

The H. B. boys rendered their weekly program Monday night with a large attendance. They seem to always draw a large crowd.

The young people of the home wish to express their thanks to Marshal Joseph A. Rose for the kindness he showed them by clearing the snow off the sidewalks and around the home.

Miss Miller gave to those who eat at her table the privilege of sending valentines to each other by way of mailing them in a large bag in her room. After they were all mailed she brought the bag to the table and distributed them. All seemed to enjoy the dinner after receiving the valentines. We are certainly proud of the privilege of eating at her table.

George Dyer bought a bay mare from Nelse Chaney for $87.

Miss Hines, one of the academy faculty, leaves today for Lexington to undergo medical treatment.

Rev. Jeff Brewer, of Stillwater, was in town Tuesday to get some tools for his logging job in Menifee county.

George Dyer has bought the farm of his father-in-law, S. M. Tyler, on Grassy. He also bought another farm from Courtney Barker adjoining it for $350. He expects to build a new dwelling soon. George says that he thinks he can make a success at farming.

The kickers on the farm are not so hard to get along with as the kickers in town. On the farm there is the kicking cow, and our long eared friend, the mule, while in town there is the old mossback who wants all the municipal improvements without paying for them. The cow may be sold for beef, the mule traded for a shot gun, but nothing but a funeral will get rid of the town kicker.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collected and Concisely Chronicled.

Mrs. Jane Allen, supposed to be the oldest woman in Kentucky, is enjoying good health at the age of 104 years at her home in Floyd county.

The postoffice at Williamsburg was entered by crackmen last week and the safe dynamited. Some cash and 1,900 two-cent stamps were taken.

Since the county judge has made it a practice to appoint complainants as road overseers in Johnson county, the roads have been improved considerably.

Charles Tibbs was last week given a life sentence in the penitentiary by the Bell Circuit court, for the murder of Charles Haynes, at Middleboro, a few months ago.

Judge W. W. Powers, of Owingsville, raised a parsnip in his garden which would make a good mess for a fair sized family. It measured 16 1/4 inches in circumference.

Nick Muntz, who shot and killed Elva Coy about two months ago, believing him to be a night rider, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn near Sylvan Dell, in Harrison county, last week.

When a load of buckshot, which he had discharged into his left breast, failed to bring unconsciousness, Albert Gray, a Bath county farmer, raised the gun again and made sure of death by blowing out his brains.

At a public sale on the farm of Thos. Carr, in Scott county, last week, common barn yard chickens brought from 90 cents to $1.10 each, and turkeys sold at $4 apiece. Other live stock and produce brought proportionate prices.

Howard Little was electrocuted in the state prison, at Richmond, Va., last Friday, for the murder of a family of eight persons. He was born in Kentucky, and while acting as deputy marshal shot and killed a man in Pike county.

Three thoroughbred horses and much feed were consumed in a fire which destroyed a large stock barn belonging to Eugene Harmon, in Boyle county. It is thought the fire caught from the overturning of a lantern by a farm hand.

While descending a declivity in the road Henry Carpenter, who was riding along the Stonelick road, in Mason county, in a wagon with John Hefflin, was thrown from his seat, and falling over an embankment broke his neck, death resulting instantly.

Fifteen negroes confined in the jail at Pineville made an effort to gain liberty last week by setting fire to the building and it was only through the efforts of the jailer and his assistants that the building was saved and the desperate negroes rescued from being cremated.

Less than three weeks ago an explosion occurred in a mine near Drakesboro, in Muhlenburg county, in which more than fifty miners were killed and injured, and now come reports that a powder and dust explosion in a mine near Stearns, in Whitley county, snuffed out the lives of six miners last week.

While stooping over to wait on a customer at his grocery store, in Paris, Ernest Martin, a deputy sheriff of Bourbon county, had his revolver to drop from the holster and exploded when it struck the floor, the bullet entering Martin's left side just above the heart and lodging under the skin at the back. He is in a serious condition.

Jim Hardie, a negro living near Oak Grove, in Christian county, killed a vicious wolf a few nights ago with an ax, after the animal had attacked him. A number of sheep and dogs in that vicinity had been killed by some mysterious marauder, presumably the wolf. This is the second one killed in that county within a month, a big one having been killed by a party of hunters.

Becoming angered at E. T. Caffrey, of Somerset, while preparing to shoot an oil well in the Slickford field, in Wayne county, Earl Slobaum hurled a can of nitro-glycerine at him. It exploded near Slobaum, causing a wagon loaded with high explosives to blow up, tearing Slobaum into shreds. Caffrey escaped injury except a severe shock from the explosion. The jar was felt for ten miles around, and was almost like an earthquake.
